Willner Angling For TV Tie-In

By Jim Graham

MILT WILLNER, our local boxing promoter who generates more energy than a dynamo, believes his next show could turn out to be a bigger eye-popper than the Zora Foley-Doug Jones stemwinder.

Willner is angling for a Foley-Jones fall rematch which would be tied into a closed circuit telecast of the Gene Fullmer - Dick Tiger NBA middleweight championship match in San Francisco.

One of the biggest hurdles in "Mr. Hustle's" plans was overcome Tuesday when the date of the Fullmer-Tiger title go was shifted from Sept. 12 to Oct. 16.

Willner burned the telephone wires between Denver and New York the past few

Tight Golf Highlights State Meet

Extra-hole sessions and better medal play highlighted Tuesday's first round action in the 60th Colorado Golf Assn.'s state match play tournament at the Fitzsimons Golf Club.

Dr. Valuck, who needed extra holes for a decision with Defending Champion Dr. Sam Valuck of City Park convinced that match play competition is a strenuous pastime.

Dr. Valuck, who needed 42 holes to sideline Les Fowler of Boulder, Colo., in last year's finals at Cherry Hills CC, had to birdie the 10th Tuesday to get past young Larry McAtee of the Lakewood Country Club, a 19-year-old sophomore at Colorado University.

Dr. Valuck trailed McAtee three down after five holes, then rallied to trail only one at the end of nine.

It was an up and down situation from the 10th through the 15th with Dr. Valuck taking a 1 up lead into the final three holes. But McAtee birdied the par five 18th to send the match into extra holes. Dr. Valuck answered with a birdie on the first hole to end the match.

Gary Polumbus, who will join with McAtee on the CU golf squad next season, had a fine 1-under-par 68, but lost 1 up on the 19th to John Jacks.

In other extra hole duels Al Gunning downed Bob Linnville 1 up on 19, and Bill Flenniken Sr. turned back Myran Craig and Kent Campbell defeated Floyd Papin, both matches going 20 holes.

Chip Berry, a Denver University sophomore and co-medalist, was ousted by Ron Chase 2 and 1 in another feature match.

The tournament continues through the match play rounds concluding with Sunday's 36-hole pairing for the finalists.

IDENTICAL SHOTS KEY STATE GOLF TITLE MATCH

Ray Pierson (right), winner of the state golf title Sunday at the Fitzsimons Golf Course, and Tom Reed his toe, lift golf balls from the same spot just shy of hole on the 30th green. Both took par fours here. Pierson eventually defeated Reed by 1 up margin.

Too Much Bear Hustle Gives Colonels Game

By FRANK HARAWAY

Denver Post Sports Writer
Like a fighter too eager to knock out an opponent on the ropes, Denver's Bears muffed their chances to beat Louisville in Sunday night's home stand closer because they were over-anxious.

They lost 6-4 even though they collected nine base hits, drew 10 walks and benefited from four Louisville errors. Twenty Grizzlies reached base compared to 11 Colonels.

The answer was four Louisville double plays and in three of them, overeagerness by a Grizzly was the deciding factor.

Before dissecting these situations, let it first be recorded that Louisville drove in all of its runs with extra-base hits—each time with two out. And let it be noted that leftfielder Howie Bedell and shortstop Chico Fernandez came up with brilliant defensive maneuvers when they were sorely needed.

Now for the instances when the Bears literally hustled themselves out of the ball game:

Kostros Welcome First Son Sunday

Frank Kostros, the Denver Bears' infielder-outfielder, became the father of a 7-pound, 7-ounce boy just before Sunday's Denver-Louisville game. Mrs. Kostros and baby both were reported doing fine at General Rose Hospital. It is the Kostros' first child. They were married last fall at Colorado Springs.

• Jess Queen, on first base with two out in the second inning, rounded second so far on Bill Freehan's drive near the leftfield corner that he was easily doubled off first base when Bedell made a nifty backhand catch.

• With nobody out in the sixth inning, Queen on first base with a walk, and Vic Rehm already showing five walks, Freehan, on a 3-and-1 count, declined to "take" a pitch and grounded into a double play.

• With runners on first and second and nobody out in the seventh inning, LeGrant Scott allowed himself to be doubled off second on Purn Goldy's medium-velocity liner to short when a three-run deficit dictated safety-first base running.

• With the bases loaded and two out in the eighth, Scott running with head down from second base assumed Goldy's single was going through the infield and tried to score from second. Fernandez made a diving backhand stop, and got up to throw Scott out at home by many feet.

The scorebook shows only two walks off Doug Gallagher's offerings in four innings but faulty control indirectly cost him all of Louisville's runs as he took his third loss in 10 decisions.

Gallagher was behind on the count on all of the Colonel's scoring hits and had to come in too good with his pitches rather than risk bases on balls.

The Bear southpaw left-handed Lou Klimchock on four pitches with two out in the first inning, then was tagged for a run-producing double by Jim Bolger that popped out of Queen's glove near the center-field wall.

With two out and two on in the third inning, he walked Phil Root and served a three-run double to ex-Bear Fritz Brickell.

A Donated Run

With two away in the fourth, Bedell rocked him for a double and Ellis Burton for a two-run

Pierson's 18-Footer Wins Match Crown

By RALPH MOORE

Denver Post Sports Writer

Young Ray Pierson proved the difference between eight inches and 18 feet is a matter of cool determination Sunday as he rammed home a birdie putt of the more sizeable distance to defeat Tom Reed 1 up in the 36-hole winds of the 60th Colorado Golf Assn.'s match play championship at the Fitzsimons Golf Club.

Reed, the 1957 state champion, had rallied from a three-down deficit by winning the 34th and 35th holes and was eight inches away from sending the match into overtime when Pierson's 18-footer snapped the door shut on the husky Broomfield Country Clubber's late surge.

"I had that same putt this morning," Pierson chortled,

This time I putted it straight. I knew I had to have it."

Pierson's win gives Boulder both the CGA's medal and match play champions. Leo Fowler, Pierson's golf coach at CU, won the medal title earlier this season at the Wellshire municipal golf course.

"Relax Ray, play your own game. The pressure is all on him," Fowler encouraged Pierson on the 36th tee.

"It couldn't have been more wrong as it turned out," Fowler said. He had lost 1 up on the 18th to Reed in Saturday's semi-final round.

Lost Weekend Cuts Big Dodger Margin

By Associated Press

You might say the Dodgers spent a lost weekend with the "Beats" in San Francisco. Thanks to Felipe Alou and friends, the San Francisco Giants have won the National League game at Dodger Stadium, losing five there this year, plus five in a row last season at the Coliseum. In fact, they have not won a game in Los Angeles since Aug. 2, 1961, and still trail the
