2 Share Medal In Valley Golf

By RALPH MOORE
Denver Post Sports Writer

A pair of long hitters, defending champion Ray Pierson of Boulder and club champion Ron Moore of the Pinehurst Country Club, fired three-under-par 69s Monday to share medalist honors in the men's state tournament at the Valley Country Club.

The Colorado Golf Association's tournament went into match play Tuesday and will be concluded Sunday with the final- ists in a championship bracket of 64 players competing over the 36-hole route.

A stroke behind Pierson and Moore was young Larry McAtee of Lakewood. McAtee, a mem- ber of the University of Colo- rado golf team, had a two-under- par 70 over the rain soaked 36-36—72 Valley layout.

Another youngster, Bobby Hal- deen, 18, of Sterling, Colo., was the only other sub-par shooter with a 71.

Valley, hit by cloudbursts last Saturday, played long and tough Monday. The cutoff came for the championship flight at 84. Tony Vetox of Denver and George Smail, former Idaho state champion now attending the University of Colorado med- ical school, made the cutoff when Norm Pickens and George Metz of Denver, also in with 84s, failed to show for Tuesday's playoff.

GREELEY, Colo.—Mrs. Mary Murray, 1956 state champion from Denver's Lakewood Coun- try Club, scored a one-over-par 40-37—77 at the Greeley Coun- try Club Monday to win medalist honors in the 61st Colorado Women's Golf Association's championship tournament.

Mrs. Muray was three strokes better than Denver city cham- pion, Marcia Bailey, and fellow club member Mary Alice Dial in the qualifying race. Mrs. Bailey, of the Pinehurst Coun- try Club, had a 41-39—80 over the 38-38—76 Greeley club. Mrs. Dial's card was 43-37—80.

LEW MATLIN, formerly of the Colorado Springs Sky Sox and now general manager of the Hawaii Islanders in the Pacific Coast League, thinks he witnessed the greatest last-inning comeback victory in pro baseball history.

"I was business manager at Bakersfield in the California State League in the early 1940's," he recalled. "Our club was behind 19-0 coming up for the last of the ninth. Believe it or not, we came back with 20 runs to win the game 20-19. And most of the runs were scored with two out."

Young Lions Take Over In Colorado Men's Golf

The young lions have come to the fore on the Colorado golf scene, as evidenced by 20-year-old Larry McAtee's victory in the state match play tournament.

McAtee's victory, which follows the state medal play triumph of 18-year-old Hale Irwin earlier this summer, was helped along with a 1-up decision in 19 holes over former champion Lou North, who was playing on his home Valley Country Club Course.

McAtee credited his win over North as "bringing me into a good frame of mind." North last won the match play championship in 1933, the year McAtee, at 10, first picked up a club.

McAtee downed 19-year-old Bob Douma 3 and 2 Sunday in the finals of the 61-year-old tournament.

Only Jim English, 1957 champ from Columbine Country Club, was around to represent the veterans in the semifinals of the match event, and McAtee erased him 4 and 3.

McAtee, of the Lakewood Country Club, was in the rough to the right with his tee shot on the hole but laced a two iron shot out of the weeds seven feet past the pin. He rammed home his putt for the eagle.

McAtee's brilliance on the distance holes was marred only by a bogey six he took on the 33rd hole of the match. Leading 2 up, he sculled his second shot into

Trippi Discounts Fix Says 'Bama Outplayed

ATLANTA (AP) Former Georgia assistant football coach Charley Trippi testified Monday in Federal Court that his squad was simply outplayed in last fall's game with Alabama, a contest which a national magazine said was rigged.

Trippi, one of Georgia's all-time great players, discounted charges that the game was fixed by Wally Butts, former athletic director at Georgia, and Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant of Alabama.

Trippi's testimony opened the sixth day in trial of a $10 million libel suit filed by Butts, who sued because of an article in the Saturday Evening Post, pub-
