

Potters claim CGA parent-child event

The Denver Post

7-02-84

EDWARDS — The father-son team of Gary and Matt Potter held on to their lead to win Sunday's second annual Colorado Golf Association Parent-Child Championship at the Singletree Golf Club in Edwards.

It was the second time the Potters have won the event.

Playing under "Pure Scotch" rules, (each player alternates hitting the ball), the Potters, out of Denver Country Club, fired a 77 Sunday to close with a total of 283. The Potters' margin of victory was eight strokes — Dr. Jim Liggett and his son Jim Jr., also of Denver, shot an 80 for a 291 total.

FINAL SCORES

Gary-Matt Potter, Denver, 283; Dr. Jim-Jim Jr. Liggett, Denver, 291; Bud-Brett Dean, Evergreen, 293; Ole-Dave Holobaugh, Littleton, 294; Dale-Randy Einspahr, Arvada, 295; Larry-Mike Wedeking, Parker, 299; Gary-Mike Potter, Denver, 300; Scooter-Gary LaCouter, Steamboat Springs, 301.