

Roger Gunderson Wins Senior Stroke Play

The CGA's Senior Stroke Play Championship was held at Gleneagle Golf Club on July 26-28. The winner was 51 year-old Roger Gunderson of Aurora Hills Golf Course who narrowly edged out Bob Heiny of Highland Hills Golf Course by one stroke.

Gunderson, playing in his first Senior Stroke Play Championship shot rounds of 72, 70 and 73 for a 54-hole total of one-under par 215. Heiny shot an opening round 69 which gave him the first round lead, but followed it with a 74 and 73 to lose by one.

Gunderson and Heiny were the class of the field, out-distancing the third place finisher, 1992 Senior Stroke Play Champion John Hamer, by seven strokes.

Boulder's Chuck Melvin finished fourth, his best performance to date since joining the senior ranks last year.

Defending champion John Golden finished tied for twelfth.

For the first time this year the CGA conducted a "Super-Seniors" Championship division for golfers over 65. This year's winner was Jim Gwinn of Eisenhower Golf Course who shot rounds of 85, 75 and 81. Other gross age division winners were as follows: 50-54 Division — Larry Leach, HeatherRidge Country Club; 55-59 Division — Jeff Moore, Lone Tree Golf Course; 60-64 Division — Gary Sullivan, Eaton Country Club; 65-69 Division — Roy Kerr, Hollydot Golf Course; 70-74 Division — Vic Kregel, Eisenhower Golf Course; 75 and Over Division — Don Willman, Kissing Camels Golf Club.
