

Lucero Takes CGA Western Chapter

Dennis Lucero of Lincoln Park Golf Course won his first CGA Championship on July 31st at Bookcliff Country Club with a two-shot win in the Colorado Golf Association's Western Chapter Championship. Lucero edged out Ken Kirby of Hillcrest Golf Course and Mike Troyer of Boulder Country Club.

Lucero shot rounds of 68 and 71 for a one-under 36-hole finish. Kirby shot rounds of 72 and 69 while Troyer shot 71 and 70 to tie for second place.

Bookcliff Country Club hosted lunch for the players following the second round and did an excellent job with every aspect of the tournament. Many thanks to head professional Brett Winder and manager Mike Shannon as well as the rest of the staff at Bookcliff Country Club for hosting the event.

The CGA Western Chapter championship was started in 1983 and has been won five times since its inception by C. Paul Brown of Bookcliff. (Brown did not enter this year's tournament.) Brown is the only repeat winner in the championship although the father-son duo of Mark and Monte Montgomery have both won the title (Mark in 1988 and Monte in 1989).
