

Maten, Hix claim CGA Two-Man

Luke Maten and Bob Hix, both of Littleton, won the 1995 Colorado Golf Association Net Two-Man Team Championship at Lake Valley Golf Course yesterday.

The three-day event was a mixed format championship in which two-man teams competed in a scramble format one day, a best-ball format the next and a scotch format on the last day.

DATELINE

ROCKIES

Maten and Hix combined for a 183 total, two strokes better than second-place finishers Ken Callaway and Steve Liggett, both from Eaton, and the team of Westminster's Don Bova and Aurora's John Monaco.

GOLF

CGA NET TWO-MAN TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

At Lake Valley G.C.

Par 70

Luke Maten-Bob Hix	62-61-60—183
Ken Callaway-Steve Liggett	63-58-69—185
Don Bova-John Monaco	58-58-69—185
Steve Barry-Leroy Kidney	64-60-65—189
Todd Vaughn-Frank Grabowski	65-59-65—189
Mel Gardner-Scott Marshall	68-58-64—190
John Reilly-Jeff Peterson	61-65-65—191
Eric Swierczek-Ed Bryant	64-58-71—193
Fred Maten-Ron Scholes	66-62-65—193
Jim Roy-Dee Magnall	62-64-67—193
Danny Wyrick-Steven Thorne	67-61-65—193