

Garber wins Mid-Amateur

Rick Garber of Wellshire Golf Course sank a 5-foot par putt on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff Saturday to win the Colorado Golf Association's Mid-Amateur Championship at the Broadmoor Golf Club's South Course in Colorado Springs.

Garber slipped to a 5-over-par 77 in the final round after quadruple bogeying the par-4 ninth and double-bogeying the par-5 finishing hole. Dale Smigelsky of Fort Collins shot the low round of the day, a 3-under 69 to tie Garber at even-par 216 after 54-holes.

Meanwhile, Gregg Jones of Colorado Springs shot a 71 for a three-round 212, eight shots off the pace going into today's final round of the PGA Club
